NJCU School of Business Hosts Gold Medal Starnet Award Celebration

Jersey City, NJ (June 28, 2016) New Jersey City University School of Business celebrated their Gold Medal Winner in the 2016 Starnet Design Award's Education Category. Annually, the awards recognize design and flooring installation excellence, along with the dynamic relationships between the Starnet Members, A&D Community and Starnet Preferred Vendor flooring products.

"With 22 entries submitted in the category, the competition was stiff, with one entry standing out from the crowd", commented Design Awards Judge Megan Walker, Senior Interior Designer at Eppstein Uhen Architects. She added, "The NJCU School of Business was selected for its bold use of colors, materials, and patterns with a masterful sense of scale that blends education and corporate design helping transition college graduates to real life working environments."

An award celebration was held at NJCU on June 8, 2016, acknowledging all the partners in the project and their accomplishment. Representatives from Consolidated Carpet, Clarke Caton Hintz, Del-Sano Construction, J&J Flooring Group, Milliken and Starnet, gathered with the faculty of NJCU to celebrate the success and journey of this project. The event commenced in the Skyline Room of the School of Business and continued with a tour of the facility.
